Press release 20 July 2006:

With effect from the 1st Sunday of Advent 2006, three of the present holydays of obligation are transferred to Sundays. This decision was made by the Bishops of England and Wales, and has been confirmed by the Holy See.

.Holy Days of Obligation which are Solemnities of the Lord (other than Christmas Day) are to be moved to Sundays. This means that the Epiphany, the Ascension of the Lord and Corpus Christi will now be celebrated on Sunday

The Bishops of England and Wales have decided to transfer these Holy Days of Obligation to Sunday in response to requests from the Diocesan Council of Priests and many others

St Peter & St Paul (29 June) Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary (15 August)

All Saints (1 November) will continue to be Holy Days of Obligation but when they fall on a Saturday or Monday they will be transferred to the Sunday

God Bless.

Fr. Pat O'Neill
